MOSCOW ADMITS ANTI-RED BOLT AT PETROGRAD

"Its Liquidation Postponed For A Day," Says Wireless Message

PLAN ATTACK ON CITY

Reports Indicate Railroad To Soviet Capital Has Been Cut By Rebels

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 9.—The news from Russia continues to be extremely confused and shadowy. The Soviet wireless in Moscow, however, euphemistically announces that the Soviet Government has "postponed the liquidation of the Kronstadt revolt for a day." This, taken in conjunction with other messages, is interpreted as bearing out the report that a Bolshevik infantry attack against Kronstadt across the ice was heavily repulsed. Some of the forts on the Gulf of Finland which apparently at first fired against Kronstadt are now directing their fire against Petrograd.

It is stated that General Koslovsky is about to march against Petrograd after a successful artillery duel.

There are indications that the insurgents have seized the railway junctions at Pskoff and Bologoye, their possession of the latter place meaning that the Moscow-Petrograd line has been cut midway.

London, March 9.—The latest British official reports from Russia state that all is quiet in Moscow but that many Soviet troops in Petrograd are refusing to fight the revolutionaries.

Trotsky and Zinovieff have taken up their headquarters in the Peter and Paul fortress. General Brusiloff has been appointed commander-in-chief.

London, March 10.—The Times learns officially that the revolutionaries have captured Petrograd, with the exception of two railway stations there.

The report that the Reds have lost heavily at Krasnoe-Selo and Gatchina is borne out by a Bolshevik wireless message to the effect that the position of the Bolshevist army there and at Oranienbaum is worse.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, March 6.—Although both the extreme Right and Left press continue to accuse each other's supporters of military preparations for the opening of hostilities in the spring, there is no official confirmation of such preparations and public opinion is inclined to regard these statements as propaganda.

The opinion prevails that both sides are bound to take into account the disadvantage in which the aggressor is likely to find himself and besides, whatever be the policy of the leaders, the men on both sides are far from being anxious to fight. Consequently the nervous tension prevailing here a month ago in connection with war rumors has diminished.

WOOD OFFERED PHILIPPINE JOB

(Reuter's Service)

San Francisco, March 9.—Justice F. Johnson has sailed for Manila. It is said that General Leonard Wood was offered the post of Governor-General of the Philippine Islands, in a conference with President Harding but Justice Johnson has been detailed to the Philippines.

In making his original offer of the governorship of the Philippine Islands to General Wood, President Harding is understood to have been moved generally by a desire to obtain full information regarding conditions in the Philippines. It is believed that General Wood made the suggestion that he could conduct his inquiry more effectively by retaining his rank in the army, than by leaving it and accepting the civil appointment as Governor.

Today's decision was announced by the Secretary of War, Mr. John W. Weeks, issuing a statement at the White House after leaving the Conference Room. President Harding said he is anxious to settle definitely on a policy regarding the Philippines, and had asked General Wood, because of his extended experience there, to go to the islands and report on conditions.

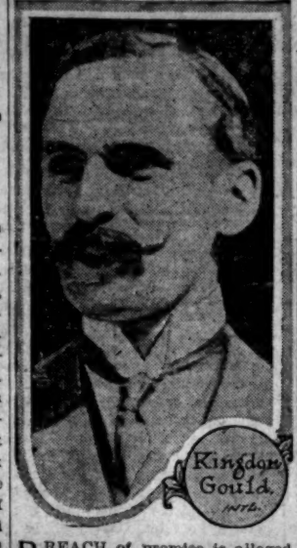
Kingdon Gould Sued For Half Million By Divorcee



BREACH of promise is alleged in the $500,000 suit brought by Mrs. Elsa Blum, of Arkville, N. Y., against Kingdon Gould, of New York, second son of George Jay Gould. Mrs. Blum, a divorcee, says that Mr. Gould promised to marry her before he married Miss Annunziata Lucci in 1917. According to Mrs. Blum's complaint Gould paid for detectives to get evidence whereby Mrs. Blum was able to obtain her divorce. She further alleges that Gould promised to marry her as soon as she should be freed from her husband.

NEW TREASURY CHIEF FAVORS BUDGET SYSTEM

Mellon Tells Bankers Short Term Loan May Be Floated

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, March 9.—Mr. A. W. Mellon, the Secretary of the Treasury, has issued his first official statement in the form of a letter to American bankers. In this he urges rigid economy in regard to governmental expenditure, and the immediate establishment of a national budget system.

He says, inter alia, that, though the financial condition of America during the past eight months has been particularly encouraging, heavy drains on the Treasury are to be expected in March and April, and these will possibly require the flotation of short-term certificates to meet indebtedness. He therefore warns the nation against extravagance.

Dato's Assassins Sought Revenge

(Reuter's Service)

Madrid, March 9.—The plot to assassinate Senor Dato was hatched by Spaniards in Paris as a reprisal for the repression of the syndicalist disorders at Barcelona. Senor Dato received a telegram of warning from Paris on March 6.

There were three assassins, riding a single motor cycle with a side-car. All three fired Browning revolvers with both hands. Senor Dato was hit in six places and his car was pierced by 27 bullets.

The Foreign Minister, Senor Lema, has been recalled from Barcelona where he was to have presided at the International Communications Conference.

Japan's Prince Reaches Hongkong

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hongkong, March 10.—The Japanese Crown Prince arrived here this morning, whereupon the Japanese warships and the British men-of-war in harbor exchanged salutes. The Crown Prince did not land, but Vice-Admiral Oguri and the captains of the Katori and the Kashima came ashore. A detachment of the Wiltshire Regiment, with band, formed a guard of honor.

A large gathering of Japanese residents assembled in anticipation of His Imperial Highness's landing, and intending to give a patriotic demonstration, but they were disappointed. Admiral Oguri, having inspected the guard of honor, motored to Government House, where he paid an official call on the Governor, the latter returning the visit later in the forenoon.

MASS MEETING TODAY STARTS FAMINE DRIVE

Committee Expects $500,000 To Be Subscribed Today; Parade Sunday

APPEAL IS MADE

Consuls-General And Head Of Municipal Council Urge Contributions

A mass meeting will be held under the auspices of the Shanghai United Famine Relief Drive this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Town Hall when it is expected that one half million dollars will be subscribed for relief work.

Features of the program will be short talks by Mr. C. C. Nieh, president of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce; Mr. H. A. Wilden, French Consul General; Mr. C. Y. Sun of Tientsin, and David Yui. Music will be furnished by Moutrie's Band, a group of songs will be sung by the girls of McTyeire School and folk dances given by the Y.W.C.A. Training School girls. The affair is under the direction of Mr. T. Y. Chang and Mr. Benton Saunders. Following the program contributions will be received.

A parade for the purpose of creating interest in the famine relief drive will be held Sunday afternoon. Permission to hold the parade was received from the Municipal Council yesterday and the co-operation of the Police Departments of both the Settlement and French Concession promised.

Features of the parade will be bands, floats, and decorated automobiles, while representatives of fifty organisations will march on foot.

The parade will form at one o'clock on Thibet Road from Avenue Edward VII. to Nanking Road. The line of march is as follows-down Avenue Edward VII. to the Bund over to Rue du Consulat, from here to Rue du Montigny, turn to Rue du Ningpo, to Boulevard des Deux Republiques and from here to the Bund where the parade will disband.

OFFICIALS MAKE APPEAL

The following appeal was issued yesterday to the people of Shanghai:

For some months past the attention of the whole civilised world has been called to the unfortunate famine conditions existing in the North of China. Because of the absence of rain, the expected crops failed to mature and the people of the affected sections, who are dependent entirely on what they can produce themselves, have been facing starvation and death.

Indeed many have already died. More are succumbing daily to the rigors of this famine and, before the new crops are harvested, the death-roll will reach into the hundreds of thousands, if not millions.

Moreover, the period of disease and pestilence which always follows in the wake of famine, is approaching and we may see many of those who survive the period of starvation, carried away by typhus and other fatal diseases.

GENEROUS AID GIVEN

In response to the many appeals for aid which have been sent broadcast, contributions have been hurried to the relief workers and it is due to the generosity of these philanthropists that the affected region has not been depopulated.

Those of us who are in close contact with this section realise probably better than any one else the terrible havoc which this affliction has worked in the lives of the people. It was to us likewise, that the first appeals for aid were made and from us that the early contributions were received.

But in spite of the liberality which has marked the response to all appeals, there is still a lack of funds to meet the demands of the famished people. The treasuries of all the relief organisations are empty and there still remain three months before the new crops arrive to relieve the hunger and distress.

It is this period, too, which is the crucial one. So far, the "fittest" have survived, but even they are human and cannot be expected to combat the all too-rigorous disease and continued hunger which now stares them in the face.

STAMP FORGERS ARE SENTENCED FOR LONG TERMS

Men Convicted Of Counterfeiting Get Three And Four Years Each

The two Chinese convicted of the forgery here of postage stamps of the Chinese Republic were sentenced by Assessor Tenney and Magistrate Yui in the Mixed Court yesterday, the first accused drawing a term of three years imprisonment and the second a term of four years, to be followed by expulsion from the Settlement in either case.

On the application of Mr. J. G. Priestwood, who prosecuted the case, the plates used in the counterfeiting and the forged stamps seized were turned over to the Postal Commissioner. The marked bank notes which were used in the apprehension of the forgers were also ordered to be turned over to the postal authorities—$50 in all. So it cost the service some $250 to bring the offenders to book, a total of about $300 being expended in effecting the arrests.

The Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Denby, has declined to comment on the matter.

SEES MENACE TO BRITISH TRADE WITH JAPANESE

Labor Member In Commons Demands Action By Board Of Trade

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 9.—In the course of the debate in the House of Commons today on international trade, the Labor member, Mr. Graeme, urged the Board of Trade to remedy Great Britain's position in the Japanese markets, part of which, he asserted, we were in danger of losing owing to the uncertainty of our deliveries and the high prices. He also declared that China's cotton trade was developing remarkably and threatened the keenest competition.

Replying to a question, Sir Robert Horne, the President of the Board of Trade, warned against the futility of anticipating substantial results from the resumption of trade with Russia, although he was anxious to make a beginning.

He pointed out that in addition to 80 percent of the spindles agreeing to pay sixpence on every bale of cotton used in this country, the Government had promised to pay £50,000 every year for five years in order to develop the cultivation of cotton in the Empire.

The Government also proposed to improve the guarantees under the export credit scheme, guaranteeing 85 percent of the merchants' selling price.

DENBY, WEEKS AND ROOSEVELT FAVOR BIG NAVY

Heads Of U.S. Military Establishments Urge Expansion Program

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Washington, March 9.—The Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Edwin Denby, addressing the annual dinner of the Navy League, advocated the maintenance of a navy prepared to fight, and as large as any other. Such a navy he said, would not be directed against any power, and would not mean that the country was in the armament race but might be put in the same class as fire insurance on homes.

Mr. John W. Weeks, Secretary of War, supporting Mr. Denby, said that he hoped the navy would be constantly ready for service.

The Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, declared that the United States must be prepared for the next war.

M. Jusserand, the French Ambassador at Washington, said that France was greatly interested in disarmament, but was so busy regarding her devastated lands that she had no time to consider the problem.

JAIL INMATES IN FAMINE AREA PETITION CHURCH

Thirty-Seven Prisoners At Anping, Honan, Indite Touching Plea

From the famine stricken area many touching appeals have come. Usually they are transmitted through famine relief workers or other agencies on behalf of the famishing peasantry of the North. Here is one from thirty-seven prisoners now confined in the county jail at Anping, Honan. It was directed to the Rev. F. J. Griffith and reads as follows:

"A petition or entreaty to the manager of the Holy Church of Jesus: Within the city prison we have heard that the Holy Church has stayed its chariot and arrived at the city of Anping with the intention of opening a soup kitchen to preserve the poor people who have no means of existence, and also to save the lives of all. The benevolence of the Holy Church pervades heaven and earth; the kindness of the Holy Church extends throughout the whole world. The beneficence of the Holy Church is well known and has been sincerely believed by the people of China for many years. Alas, the people of our detestable country, although they know the Holy Church is good, nevertheless it is like a vast doorway which we find it difficult to enter.

"At present in this jail there are some thirty-seven prisoners who have heard of the stopping of your chariot to open the kitchen to relieve the suffering of the poor people. We unceasingly rejoice and clap our hands and beg your honor to preserve the remains that you throw to the dogs and horses and give to us prisoners. In this our desires will be satisfied.

"In this prison there are Wu Ying-kuai, Tsui Sui-hsin, Hu Sun-chi and Liu Ming-kang, all literary men with knowledge of our own and foreign tongues. We together with the other prisoners, who number altogether thirty-seven, have conferred together and dare to presume to ask of you some of your sacred books. Every day we can read here in the prison and meditate together, and thereby our ignorance will be enlightened. Maybe we shall awake and repent.

"Hereafter when our sentences are completed and we return to our homes not only all of we prisoners will heartily rejoice, but maybe our country will be greatly benefitted by our return as peaceful and reformed citizens.

"We offer humble obeisance and we beg of your eminence to consider our petition and benignly to act in accordance therewith.

Later. The conference of Allied delegates has settled details of the enforcement of the penalties. They agreed that the penalties should cease when the questions of indemnity, disarmament and war criminals had been solved.

London, March 10.—In consequence of suggestive comments in the French newspapers regarding the outcome of the establishment of a new customs barrier in the Rhineland, Mr. Lloyd George at last night's conference invited the French Premier, M. Briand, to endorse the assurances previously given by MM. Millerand and Clemenceau that France did not contemplate the annexation or even the autonomy of the Rhineland.

In complying with this invitation, M. Briand emphatically declared that responsible Frenchmen did not entertain any such feeling. Mr. Lloyd George expressed his pleasure at this assurance.

The money was paid in advance in accordance with the custom of the profession. Liu made but five appearances.

Council Control Agitates Harbin

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, March 6.—The question of Chinese assumption of control of the local Municipal Council is still largely commented on here. A committee consisting of one Chinese and one Russian Member of the C.E.R. Board of Directors and one representative of the Tao-yin will shortly be appointed to discuss the question in detail.

It has been frequently pointed out here that Chinese action with regard to the Council should not be regarded as based on the Peking Agreement with the Russo-Asiatic Bank of last October, or upon the President's decree of September 23, abolishing Russian political rights in China, whereof the Peking Agreement was only the result.

Olympic Concert

The second concert of Mme. M. B. Tcherkasskaya the well-known Continental Prima Donna was given last evening at the Olympic to a well-filled and wildly enthusiastic house when Mme. Tcherkasskaya was very ably assisted by our own Mme. Isenman and the Shanghai Municipal Orchestra conducted by Maestro M. Paci.

The program, as given below, was well chosen and showed Mme. Tcherkasskaya's fine dramatic power and full warm mezzo soprano to its best advantage Certainly the most appreciated solo was Brunhilde's famous call "Hoyoto Ho" from Wagner's "Die Walkyrie."

Mme. Isenman's pure flexible soprano ensured the success of the duet from "Lohengrin."

Artistes of the calibre of Mme. Tcherkasskaya are all too rare and her success in Shanghai has been instantaneous and well-deserved.

Mixed Court Jottings

The proprietor of an opium and gambling den at 399 Chengtu Road was ordered imprisoned for a month yesterday and eighteen patrons of the establishment, who were seized in a raid, were ordered to pay $3 each or go to jail for three days. Detective Constable Beer, who conducted the raid, also visited another gambling resort at 283 Wenchow Road and gathered in seven players and the proprietor. The proprietor drew a fine of $20 and his patrons were assessed $2 each.

Seven coolies appeared yesterday in connection with the murder of a woman named Dzung Tsang-ze in a village off Gordon Road. Detective Sergeant Yorke, who effected the arrests, stated that three men had been apprehended since the last hearing in the case and that six of the men had been identified by the two complainants—the husband and brother-in-law of the murdered woman. The case was remanded for a special hearing pending the recovery of one of the complainants, who is still in hospital. A child was also shot by the gang. Detective Sergeant Yorke stated to the Court that word had been received that some of the accused were wanted in Haichow in connection with a murder there and the Assessor ordered that a Haichow detective who is in Shanghai at the present time be requested to appear and give evidence.

A coolie convicted of having abducted a child and sold it for $50 to a family in Paoshan was sentenced to three years' imprisonment and expulsion. Two other coolies charged with abducting a 5-year-old girl, who has not yet been recovered, were sentenced to three years' imprisonment, the sentence to be reconsidered if the men will assist the police to return the child to its parents.

A favorite practice of Chinese passengers who get into altercations with tram conductors consists in the biting the company officials, according to Mr. Muir of the Tramways company, who appeared to press a case yesterday. Several of the company's servants have been more or less Fletcherised lately, he said. The offender in the case in point goes to jail for a month.

A Chinese insurance agent of the Nanyang and Siam Insurance Company who was accused of embezzling $1,000 which was to be paid to a man who had suffered a fire loss in Chinkiang was ordered handed over to the Chinkiang authorities for trial, a transcript of the evidence taken here to be forwarded.

Strangler Lewis' Deadly Headhold Is All Bunk, Says Old Farmer Burns

Tales of the terrific headlock used by "Strangler" Lewis, the wrestler, fail to impress Martin ("Farmer") Burns, one of the most remarkable grapplers of all times.

"It is bunk—all bunk," declares Burns. "These stories you read about Stecher having his head half-crushed by the headlock and of Zbyszko's eyes nearly popping out because of the headlock listens like press-agent stuff—and nothing else.

"I have been identified with the wrestling game for nearly forty years. I have seen the headlock used by masters in the use of the headlock. I have seen Lewis use it, and I say right here and now that Lewis does not know how to hold his hands when he is gripped for the headlock. If he wants to dispute me in this statement, I'll gather a dozen oldtime wrestlers who saw masters of the headlock use it, and let them serve as a jury as to whether Lewis knows how to apply the headlock properly.

"I am 55 years old now, and I have not done any contest wrestling for some time. But I have got $5000 to bet—and my friends have $25,000 more—on two conditions in this way:

"First—All the money that I mentioned I will bet that I will let Lewis get a headlock on me in any way he wants to without any effort whatsoever to resist him. After he has secured a grip to suit himself, I will then sing the song 'Wearing of the Green,' and after I have finished it I will break Lewis' so-called headlock within three minutes. If I fail to do it my bets will be lost.

"Secondly—After I have permitted Lewis his so-called headlock and then broken it I will go immediately on the mat and wrestle with Lewis, and I'll bet my original $5000 plus my $5000 winnings, and my friends will bet their original stake plus their winnings, that I can throw Lewis twice in one hour. If I don't, then the Lewis outfit get all the money.

"I am 55 years old—that is supposed to be beyond the athletic age. But it doesn't require an athlete to toss over a joke performer like Lewis. Of the quartet of wrestlers who are connected with the so-called 'wrestling trust,' the worst of them all, in my opinion, is Lewis. I have seen each and every one of them in action and I saw all the great wrestlers in their day—in fact, I wrestled with most of them. Frank Gotch, at his best, could have taken all three—Stecher, Zbyszko and Lewis—and flopped them in an hour without drawing a long breath.

"It is time that this bunking of the public concerning the 'terrible headlock' of Lewis and 'fearful toehold' of Zbyszko be stopped. Any good wrestler in America who is not affiliated with the trust can break these holds without a real effort. If Lewis and the others don't think so they can get all the bets they want.

"And any time Lewis thinks he knows what a headlock really is I'll bet him he doesn't know how to apply it. And if he thinks he's a real champion, here's a fifty-year-old boy who has $30,000 of his and his friends' money to prove that he's a false alarm of the worst kind."

1. Extreme simplicity. 2. Reliability. 3. It is practically noiseless. 4. It automatically adjusts itself to irregularities of shelf or mantelpiece. 5. It beats true seconds. 6. It combines the efficiency of a "Grandfather" pendulum with a 4" case. 7. Variations due to atmospheric changes are reduced to a minimum because the centre of gravity is within an eighth of an inch of the centre of motion. 8. The pivots of the compound pendulum, rolling in their curved recess, cause the pendulum to describe a cycloidal arc. 9. It cannot get out of beat. 10. There are no keys to lose. 11. There are no springs to break. 13. The design of the escapement reduces friction to the minimum. 13. The clock itself is its own driving power. 14. It shows at a glance when it needs winding. 15. The driving force is constant. 16. The design lends itself to new varieties of artistic treatment. 17. It requires no oil. 18. An extraordinary reduction of strain on working parts, giving long life.

combining with it

A speculative element of unlimited possibilities.

Because they have an assured supply of crude oil. Because t oil is high in gasoline content. Because they own their own finery and drilling machinery. Because the oil is encountered at depth of less than 1000 feet and consequent drilling costs are lo Because they have a market waiting for the refined product. A because of many other natural advantages those who are famili with the LaBarge-Piney Oil Fields of Wyoming consider them to America's most valuable oil territory; and the American Producers Refiners Inc. believe they are offering an investment which will yie a permanent income

Would it interest you to have a small sum of money invested a manufacturing enterprise and to know that every dollar m multiply itself forty or fifty times within a few months.

Wyoming is now one of the six leading States in oil production a is believed to be destined to become the leader. Almost every county the State is oil producing. The LaBarge-Piney fields, where our lan are situated, are proven lands and produce the highest grade of cru of any fields in America.

The business of the American Producers & Refiners Inc. is pri arily refining of crude oil and will consist in taking oil from our ow and adjoining wells and making it into gasoline and the other p ducts and by-products of the crude oil. The supply of the crude assured for many years to come and the market for the refin product is a local one. Lincoln County in which our property located, and the surrounding territory will absorb the entire outp of our refinery. The stock of the company may be worth ma times its par value within a year after it is issued and this d entirely to the refinery and not depending for one dollar on the lar values held by Company. If the land proves up equally with t lands surrounding it, as we naturally expect it will there will almost no limit to the possibilities.

A study of the following table will give some idea of the profi of the refining business. The estimate of earnings is based on refinery similar to ours, having a 300 barrel daily capacity, 42 ga per barrel, the oil sold for local consumption in and around the d trict where it is produced.

LAND HOLDINGS.

This company holds under lease 1933 acres of land. Forty acre of this land is proven oil land and has been appraised by experts worth one million dollars. Drilling on this forty will start in th early spring. It is surrounded by producing wells from which parafine base oil, of high gasoline content, is obtained. The oil sand have a thickness of over 100 feet and are reached at a depth between 578 and 1000 feet. It is estimated that this forty acres alon when properly drilled will supply our refinery for thirty years come. The balance of the land has been selected by careful refe ence to the anticlinal structure of the field which is now considere by leading oil geologists of the country as the greatest potenti oil field in America. The company plans to develop these land rapidly as possible and run through its refinery the product of i own wells. The companys holdings will be added to from time to tim as opportunity permits and such lands will be acquired as may b considered, by its officers, as sound and worthy of development.

POSSIBILITIES FROM A SPECULATIVE STANDPOINT

During the coming summer many drilling rigs will be working prove the value of our extensive holdings. Eminent geologists, w have studied the structure and formations, do not hesitate to sa that the whole structure, forty five miles long and fourteen miles wid is oil bearing. They know that it produces oil at one end of th structure and they also know that it is unbroken for forty-five mile If it proves up as the geologists claim that it will, it will outriv any oil discovery ever made in America. The development period wi be very rapid, and the coming summer will tell all that is to be know If the lands are all proven to be oil bearing they should make ever dollar invested in this company worth $50.00 or more. If they prov to be an absolute failure and entirely dry the stockholders will sti have the profits of the refining business and from the lands alread developed sufficient oil is assured for thirty years to come.

Some idea of the immense profits which may be realized can b gained by a glance at the following table which shows what the i vestment of one hundred dollars actually did realize in the followin companies:

must now be directed and for this purpose a nation-wide drive for funds has been organised which will replenish the empty coffers of our relief associations and provide the necessary grain and preventive medicinals.

In response to this nation-wide movement, the various relief bodies in Shanghai have come together into one association known as the Shanghai United Famine Relief Drive and propose to make a special effort during the Days of March eleventh to nineteenth inclusive, to secure their portion of the necessary subscriptions.

This effort is a worthy one and deserves the support of every member of the community. There is no contribution too small to be effective: there is none so large but that every penny of it will be devoted to saving the lives of the unfortunate people of the famine-stricken section.

It is planned to have a tag day in Hankow tomorrow in connection with the famine drive, as has been done in Wuchang, Peking and elsewhere. Many students in schools and colleges will help.

W. F. R. S. Issues Weekly Report

The following is the weekly report of the Women's Famine Relief Society:

There will be a lantern lecture on "Chinese Painting in its connection with Calligraphy and Poetry" given by Mrs. Francis Ayscough at the Royal Asiatic Society's Hall on Wednesday next March 16, at 5:30 p.m. Tickets $2.00 can be had from The American Women's Club, Mrs. Raven 405 Avenue Joffre, Mrs. D. MacGillivray 3, Darroch Road. Mrs. Rowland, The Manse, and Mrs. O. M. Green, 54, Avenue du Roi Albert. It is hoped that this Lecture will be well supported. Mrs. Ayscough has given it in America, but so far the Shanghai public has not had the opportunity of hearing her speak on this subject.

Thanks to the personal energy of the Dance Committee who worked hard to make it a success, the Dance at the Masonic Hall on the 3rd was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The Hall had been paid for by certain Masons who wish to remain anonymous, and the Society wishes to express to them its appreciation of this kindness in thus making the Dance possible. The Society would also like to thank Mr. C. Matthews for his help and advice in arranging the Hall. Mrs. Shadgett, Mr. H. P. Wilkinson, Mrs. C. J. Scott, Mrs. H. G. Simms and Mrs. G. E. Tucker were responsible for the decorations and the refreshments, which were ably carried out. Lady Fraser very kindly arranged for the music, for which the British amateur orchestra most generously gave their services.

The Statuary Raffle was drawn on Monday morning by Lady Fraser and Mme. de Rossi in the presence of Mrs. E. Q. Cooper, Lt. Col. T. E. Trueman, and Mr. R. Bigazzi in Messrs. Weeks and Co.'s Furnishing Department, the winning numbers being 261, 554, and 819. The Society wishes to thank all those who so kindly helped in the selling of tickets. Through the generosity of an anonymous friend who bought up the remaining tickets after the raffle was drawn, the total amount realised was $5,000, thus, deducting the cost of the Statuary, the funds will benefit by the sum of $3,000.

Plague In Harbin Slowly Decreasing

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, March 6.—From the beginning of the epidemic till March 1, 69 cases of plague have been registered here. This figure excludes the cases of plague which have occurred in the Chinese city where it is extremely difficult to estimate exact figures owing to the fact that the Chinese often bury their dead without reporting to the police.

The epidemic is gradually diminishing and fresh outbursts are not anticipated.

Public School For Chinese Holds Annual Speech Day

Sir Everard Fraser, British Consul-General, presided yesterday at the exercises marking the Annual Speech Day of the Public School for Chinese.

India To Supply Hongkong Opium

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 9.—Replying to Mr. Gilbert in the House of Commons, Mr. Montagu, the Secretary of State for India, stated that the agreement for the supply, by the Indian Government, of opium to the Government of Hongkong was renewed for five years from January first last, with a modification.

Hongkong would be supplied with ten chests of opium monthly at a fixed price but the Government of Hongkong was not obliged to take any prescribed minimum quantity of opium.

Replying in the House to Mr. G. Stewart, who was formerly a member of the Hongkong Legislative Council, Mr. Montagu, the Secretary of State for India, stated that he asked the Government of India what amount of opium had been exported to Hongkong and the Straits Settlements from India during 1920. He also promised to ask Mr. Churchill what measures had been taken to prevent smuggling into China from Hongkong and the Straits Settlements.

Commander Kenworthy declared that the export of opium from India was very heavy. This, he said, was taken up by Japanese merchants and taken to China and he urged the stoppage of the importation of opium from India to China in unnecessary quantities. Mr. Montagu agreed but added that his information did not bear out the statement that there was no poppy growing in China except on a strictly regulated scale.

Sir J. D. Rees suggested that the cultivation of opium in South China was so great that the disposal of this small surplus was negligible.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS HAVE DONE THEM SO MUCH GOOD."

The little son and daughter of Mrs. Xavier Manie are splendid examples of what Baby's Own Tablets can do for children. GENERAL WOOD IS INVITED TO OLYMPIC GAMES

Harding's Envoy To Philippines Asked To Come As Guest Of China Committee

ACTION ON BASEBALL

Contest Secretary And Baseball Club Urge College Teams To Play Here In May

The University of California baseball team will be joined by Leland Stanford University baseballers in Shanghai early in June if the plans of the China Contest Committee in charge of the Far Eastern Games and the Baseball Club come through. Yesterday Dr. J. H. Gray, who is in charge of the Olympics, sent cables to both California and Stanford Universities urging them to send the baseball men to Shanghai in time for the Far Eastern Games.

Today Secretary Woodrow Wilson of the Baseball Club is to cable a long message to the graduate managers at both institutions supporting Dr. Gray's request.

Last night President C. T. Wang of the China Contest Committee wired General Leonard Wood extending an invitation, on behalf of the committee, to attend the games as a guest of honor. General Wood will probably be in Manila shortly before the games and could come here without difficulty. General Wood has been named by President Harding to investigate conditions in the Philippines and make a report to the American chief executive.

EAST CHINA MEET

The East China Intercollegiate meet will be held early in May and an open meet for Chinese will be held in connection with the annual games. Chinese athletes who desire tryouts for the Olympic team, whether they are students at schools or colleges not holding membership in the East China Association or members of athletic associations will be eligible to compete at the open meet. Thus East China will be thoroughly combed for material for the China team.

GRAY AROUSING INTEREST

Part of the campaign to arouse interest in schools near Shanghai includes lantern lectures by Dr. J. H. Gray. Dr. Gray will speak at a mass meeting of students at St. John's University next Wednesday night and is to address the student body at Shanghai Baptist College next Friday night.

CHINA A. A. MEETING

While the Olympic Games are being held here a China Amateur Athletic Federation will be organised by representatives of all parts of the country. The organisation was started last year, a constitution framed and the groundwork laid which will probably mean the birth of a China national athletic body this year.

Football

The annual railway football match to be played between the picked teams of the Shanghai-Nanking and the Shanghai-Hangchow-Ningpo railways will take place at the Markham Road Recreation Ground tomorrow, beginning at 3 o'clock. A special train will leave Shanghai North Station at 2:20 o'clock, for which tickets will not be required.

For this match, Mr. M. Y. Chung, formerly managing-director of the lines and now head of the Shanghai Mint, has presented a challenge cup.

LATTIMORE TO PILOT AKRON

Akron, Ohio, Jan. 5.—Joseph Thomas, for many years head of amateur baseball, was elected president of the Akron Exhibition Company, backer of the International League Baseball Club here, at a meeting of the board of directors today. Ralph Lattimore, former major leaguer, was signed as manager, in place of Dick Hoblitzel, who has signed to manage the Reading club.

Schoolgirls Even On Basketball Honors

French And American Fives Each Register A Victory

The French Municipal School and the Shanghai American School split even on the honors yesterday when the feminine senior and junior representatives of the two institutions met on the basketball field.

The French School juniors, in a hard fought contest, defeated the American girls by a score of 9 to 7. Of the total for the winners Miss Beattie White registered 7 points, Olive Crane getting two, while Mildred Proctor netted two and Grace Castle four for the losers.

The American seniors won their game handily by a score of 25-8, Miss Louise Wilson figuring as the star. She shot 24 of the aggregate points. For the French School contenders Miss Marjorie Serebrianikoff, at center, was the outstanding player.

A Humorist On The German War Bill

"BUGS" Baer the inimitable language contortionist of The New York American's sport page, has now wrapped himself in the editorial mantle and elevated himself to the dignity of a column on the editorial page of that excellent newspaper. Naturally he has dropped the appellation "Bugs." He now writes as Mr. B. Baer, if you please. And of course, in shimmying out his ideas for the editorial page, he does not deal with Gink Fowler and the menagerie of sporting monstrosities he used to conjure up for the sport page. He now discusses Prof. Goddard and his rocket to the moon, women jurors and the German war indemnity. The transition however hasn't changed the quality of his humor. His manner of handling the question of the Allied war bill is wholly characteristic. He heads it:

"BERLIN TO RAGBAG"

And here is how he disposes of the matter which for several years has been troubling the world:

BERLIN saw Santa Claus early this year. The old boy hung a sock on 'em that will keep 'em busier than ants before a rainstorm. Fifty-six billion indemnity ain't much if you say it fast and forget it quick.

THE Kaiser once said that the price of this war will stagger humanity. He was wrong. Even with fifty-six billion we can't afford to stagger at the present prices.

THE old chirp of "Berlin to Bagdad" is now "Berlin to Ragbag." Another famous old terminus.

THE Hohenzollerns claimed to be the salt of the earth. Many a dish has been spoiled by putting in too much salt.

THE Ueber Alles are putting up a terrific sobpuller about their impoverished condition. The census indicates that they are the fattest starved people in the world. The poor of Berlin are claiming that the taxicab drivers overcharge 'em.

HE who dances must pay the fiddler. It's your own fault if you hire a whole orchestra.

UEBER ALLES means Over Alls. The Kaiser never thought that some day he would be wearing his favorite quotation.

THAT $56,000,000,000 is not payable in German marks but in spending money—$56,000,000,000. He who lives by the sword shall perish by the adding machine.

HAVING thought for years on a full stomach and an empty head German diplomats will now proceed to reverse the operation.

AFTER a century of marching and counter-marching, sapping and mining, bridging and tunneling, pulling and hauling, after one hundred years of tactics and planning, the German tacticians have now advanced Germania to a strategic position in the ash can.

GERMANY is like a pyromaniac in a burning building. They are hollering for a ladder, but forget that they chopped up the ladder to start the fire.

And yet—we two may meet again
—(Be still my throbbing heart!)
Now rolling years have weaned us from jam and raspberry-tart:
One night I saw a vision.—'Twas when musk roses bloom,
I stood—we stood—upon a rug, in a sumptuous dining room:

One hand clasped hers—one easily reposed upon my hip—
And "Bless ye!" burst abruptly from Mr. Goodchild's lip:
I raised my brimming eye, and saw in hers an answering gleam—
My heart beat wildly—and I woke, and lo! it was a dream.

A stray sentence or two from the writings of Owen Seaman, the charming poet who week by week contributes his poem to "Punch," directed my attention to the verses of Charles Stuart Calverley.

I have derived such pleasure from the reading of his humorous lyrics that I am impelled to pass on the hint to those, who like myself, have either been in ignorance of Charles Stuart Calverley, or who have neglected to pay due homage to him.

The lines written above are taken from his poem "Vision," but before I plunge into the tit-bits that have given me many a smile, even in these hard times, let me imagine that others too, need an introduction to the poet.

My Dear Reader—Mr. Charles Stuart Calverley.

He was born before any of my readers were thought of. As far as authorities can be relied upon it was in the year 1831; his folk, like most of us, came over with the Conqueror. (What a lot that Conqueror has to answer for). Like many another typical Englishman of good family he went to Harrow and after passing his years of indiscretion there he passed into Oxford University. It seems that his ideas of discipline and those of the Balliol dons did not coincide, and so he was politely and firmly told that Oxford would manage to carry on its functions without his presence. This found the youthful poet looking out for other fields whereon to display his prowess, and so he migrated to Cambridge. I fancy he found a welcome at Christ's College. Anyhow he did brilliantly there gaining the Craven Scholarship and a First Class Classical Tripos.

He was called to the Bar, but within eighteen months the promise of a shining legal career was cut short by a fall on ice, which caused an injury to the brain. He turned his attention to verse making, and his influence over succeeding generations of writers of light verse was marked. Let me give another example, before proceeding further, of his humor.

I take these few verses from his parody "Germini and Virgo."

She was a blushing gushing thing;
All—more than all—my fancy painted;
Once—when she helped me to a wing
Of Goose—I thought I should have fainted.

The people said that she was blue;
But I was green, and loved her dearly.
She was approaching thirty-two;
And I was then eleven—nearly.

The intervening verses tell of the rivalry that existed between him and a schoolfellow over this delightful maid of thirty two.

We met, we "planted" blows on blows:
We fought as long as we were able:
My rival had a bottle-nose,
And both my speaking eyes were sable.

When the school-bell cut short our strife,
Miss P. gave both of us a plaster;
And in a week became the wife
Of Horace Nibbs, the writing master.

I cannot leave Calverley without introducing you to his A. B. C.

A is an Angel of blushing eighteen:
B is the Ball where the Angel was seen:
C is her Chaperone, who cheated at cards:
D is the Deuxtemps, with Frank of the Guards:
E is the Eye which those dark lashes cover:
F is the Fan it peeped wickedly over:
G is the Glove of superlative kid:
H is the Hand which it spitefully hid:
I is the Ice which spent nature demanded:
J is the Juvenile who hurried to hand it:

BUSINESS SITUATION IN FOOCHOW

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir: Consul Hanson's letter on Foochow has certainly been written with the view—and a laudable one—of "sticking up" for the place, where he is in charge of the interests of America and Americans.

Consul Hanson takes exception to the remarks of recent visitors to Foochow, who say that the place should be avoided on account of the inaccessibility, lack of places of interest, as well as its "commercial decline."

If visitors to Foochow have taken upon themselves to write about the lack of places of interest in that city they do not know what they are talking about; and probably have never gone further than Nantai—where the Foreign Community lives. Foochow and Fukien are among the loveliest spots in China, and full of interest to anybody who has an eye for fine scenery, temples and Chinese life, etc.

"I have lived some 12 years in Foochow, speak the dialect and have travelled the province all over, so I know something about that part of China. When anyone has time to spare a few weeks for recreation during the winter months, I should advise him to make a trip to Foochow, rough it and travel about Fukien. He will be delighted.

"So far so good; but when it comes to the "Commercial decline" of Foochow and the advice of foreign visitors to avoid it in consequence, I hope Consul Hanson will forgive me for not at all agreeing with his views. To attract foreign commercial visitors by quoting the Customs returns, or making the statement that the foreign population and foreign hongs are constantly on the increase, is to my mind, not at all in the interest of those contemplating making a business there, and will only bring them great disappointment. During my short visit to Foochow a few months ago, I did not notice many new hongs; but on the contrary heard that some old hongs dating back to the Seventies have closed down and sold their property. I was told that a bank had put a seal on the godown of the one and only new firm. My Chinese friends again and again remarked that the foreign hongs only lived on a few dollars insurance commission or some odd jobs. Judging from the remarks made by several foreign friends this does not seem to be far from the truth.

All this does not point to an increase in the general trade as far as foreign firms are concerned. Of course it is a fact that the Chinese are making great headway and are trying to eliminate the foreign middlemen. This is the natural result of "the good old ideas of the good old times" when the foreign firms considered it infra. dig. to touch anything but tea. When I first went to Foochow many years ago, there were three foreign owned sawmills running at top speed; today there are seven or eight in Foochow—but all Chinese owned and Chinese managed. In this trade the foreigner has definitely lost his hold. I heard recently that Foochow dealers had begun to place orders directly with foreign countries and had handled them satisfactorily. So, no doubt, the Chinese Customs returns do show an increase, but not on account of the foreigner's increased business. The foreigner will be pushed aside more and more, and I therefore reiterate that a trip on business to Foochow is bound to bring disappointment. If a visitor to Foochow can combine business and pleasure he will have any amount of the latter but a negligible quantity of the former. Yours truly.

Honyang.

Shanghai, 9th March, 1921.

OPIUM IN SHANGHAI

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Shanghai, March 10th, 1921.

Sir: In reading Captain McEuen's report to the Shanghai Municipal Council, published in your paper of Wednesday last, regarding the Traffic in Opium, I was deeply moved.

I, therefore, beg to submit the conditions of the opium traffic in Shanghai to the notice of our foreign friends:

The laws of China for the suppression of opium were constituted nearly twenty years ago to do away with opium in China and many officers were appointed to manage this matter. Their duties were taken seriously by these officers. Many who violated the law, suffered heavy punishment; some who smoked opium were ruined and suffered loss of lives, families and properties; and some sold their children and wives.

Fortunately a treaty was made between China and the Foreign Powers in 1912 which was a great help towards stopping the transport of opium to China from foreign countries and we Chinese greatly appreciated this as it was a righteous and humane manifestation.

In November 1917 our Government had bought and collected all the remaining stock of opium in Shanghai, and this was burned at Pootung to show our determination in the work of opium suppression and we hoped other Powers would support the laws of China to clear out the illegal traffic so that the great task might be accomplished.

But the Foreign Settlement not only pays no attention to the individual opium smokers, but also disregards the laws of China as to the crimes. This may be seen by reference to the case of opium stores in the International Settlement last year prosecuted before the Italian Consulate. The opium sellers removed their business to French Town and continued as usual. Such attempts at suppression are like using a stick to drive fish in the water.

Meanwhile a great number of opium smokers have removed from their own native places to Shanghai, considering that Shanghai is the only place in China that shelters opium smokers freely. Within three years the number of opium smokers has been greatly increased in the Settlement. Opium stores, and opium article makers and vendors are still in existence. Formerly numerous opium smokers had given up their indulgence, but after they come to Shanghai they once again turn to the evil. Opium smugglers come to Shanghai to plan their schemes of business and continue their activities freely.

It is said that the profit in the business of opium smuggling has been estimated to be several millions dollars in one year.

Recently a few unscrupulous military governors, for the sake of money, have encouraged the planting and cultivation of opium; many telegrams and letters have been sent to the Government to protest against this by organisations, either of the International Anti-Opium Association or Student's Union which are apparently appreciated by the public. It is probable that the results of this cultivation are brought to Shanghai to be sold. Therefore it can be asserted that the prohibition of opium in Shanghai is really the prohibition of opium in China.

We have no better way to rescue society from this evil than to have the spirit of self-defense in this critical moment, and not let such poisonous drug exist in this cosmopolitan city of Shanghai any longer. We sincerely beg our foreign friends to deal with the matter with the broad and righteous idea of benefitting mankind and not to think it is a matter for Chinese only. Let us unite to accomplish the suppression of opium smoking, and begin in earnest at Shanghai. I am, Sir,

Sincerely yours,
Y. F. Ling.

Japs Put Equality Clause In Mandate

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 9.—The text of the mandate submitted by Japan to the League of Nations is published in New York, and confirms the reports that Japan stipulated that her nationals should not be subjected to discriminatory and disadvantageous treatment in other mandated territories.

Reuter's Washington correspondent understands this to apply particularly to the ex-German islands in the Pacific which have been mandated to Australia and New Zealand. It is understood that official circles in Washington support the Japanese position since it is of a similar character to the American objections against the provisions in the British Mesopotamian mandate, whereby, it is alleged, Americans are excluded from trading there. The United States maintains that it never agreed to the conferment on Japan of the Yap mandate.

Coal Market

Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows in their coal market report of yesterday:

JAPAN COAL

Owing to the continual decline in exchange it is gradually becoming impossible to do any new business in this staple and although prices in Japan are ruling easier, especially for dust coal, the drop in exchange makes prices appear prohibitive in the eyes of prospective buyers.

FUSHAN COAL

As prices for this coal are quoted in Yen the same remarks as above apply to a great extent also in this case.

KAIPING COAL

Although there is not much new business to report the market remains steady and all arrivals quickly pass into consumption. As imports have increased it is assumed that the situation in regard to supply of trucks in the North is a little easier, but matters are not yet normal. The demand for lump and Washed Coal continues to be in excess of supply and prices for these grades therefore remain firm.

FUCHUNG ANTHRACITE COAL

There is no news of any special interest in this line since last writing and arrivals and deliveries are going on as usual.
